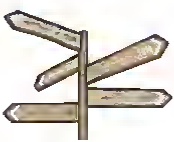
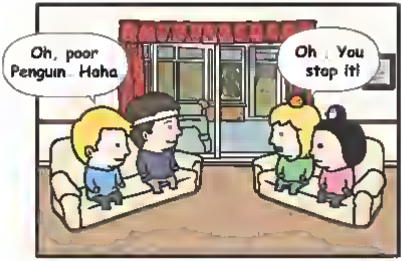
Sense of direction

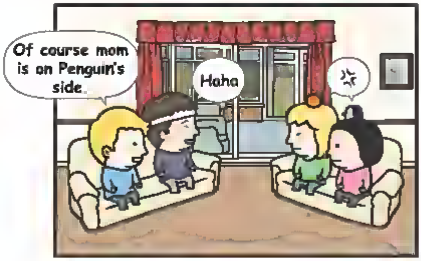


Why do some people hove a better sense of direction than others?

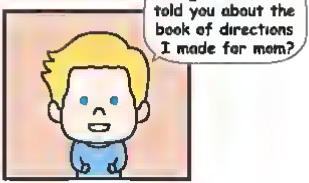
Sadly, I have a terrible sense of direction.



However,...

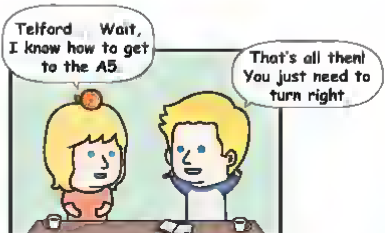


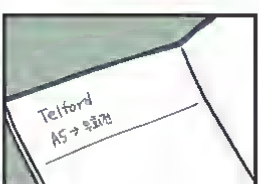
... Penguin is not the only one who is terrible with directions.



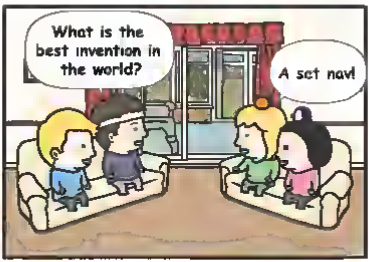
15 years ago, when Mev's family moved to a different town.

Gail needed a directions book to know how to get to some places.

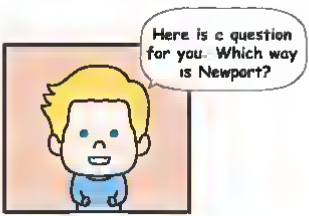


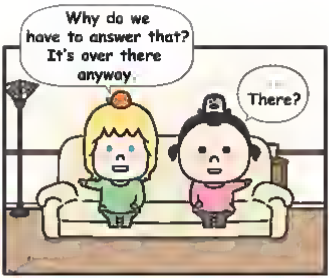


And the quick note was extremely detailed

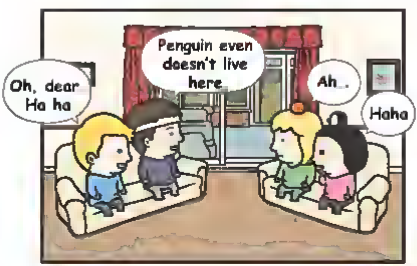


Anyway, Mev and Andrew like to make fun of Gail and me.

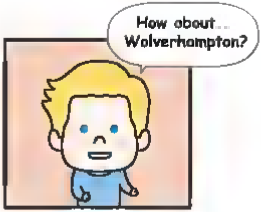




Why do we have to answer that? It's over there anyway.
There?



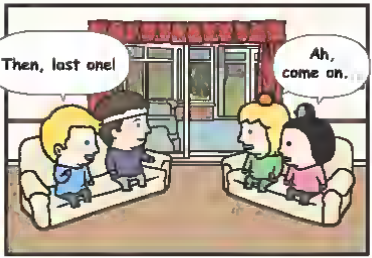
Penguin even doesn't live here.
Oh, dear Ha ha
Ah..
Haha



How about... Wolverhampton?

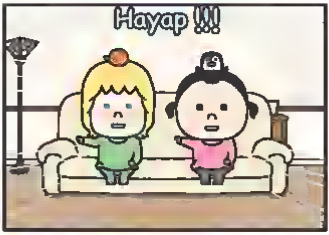
Behind us..
I'll say this way!

Aww. This time, mom got it right.
Well done Gaily~
Aww

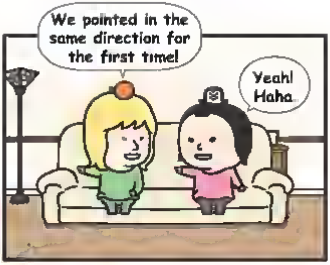


Then, last one!
Ah, come on.

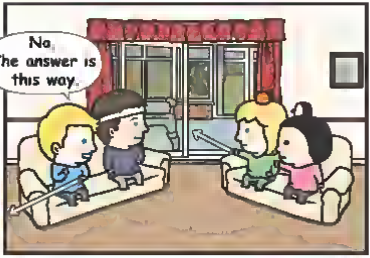
Where is our home then?



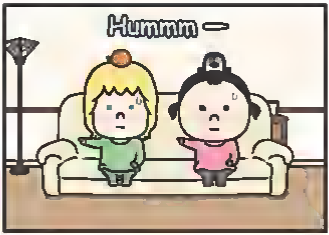
Hayap !!!



We pointed in the same direction for the first time!
Yeah! Haha.



No. The answer is this way.



Like mother in law,
like daughter in law

We'll get lost
if we go out together
